

Club Delegates— Looking Back and Moving Forward

The AGA established its club delegate program a little more than seven years ago. The purpose was to improve communication between the AGA and its members clubs. Each club designated one individual to be the liaison for the transfer of information. These delegates became our lifeline to our members. The flow goes both ways—we provide them with information that we would like to have disseminated to the members, and they provide us with valuable insights and feedback on programs and issues that are important to the club.

In order to get some feedback on the success of this program, the Member Services Committee sent a survey to all its delegates this past summer. The results were encouraging—90% of the respondents thought the program was meeting its objectives and that their efforts were appreciated by the AGA. Many, however, were unclear as to their roles and how it related to other roles within the club. Some delegates have been in this role since the beginning of the program—others tend to turnover every year or two. In many cases, the newer delegates seemed to be clearer on their purpose.

Based on the survey results, the AGA has decided to make certain improvements to the program. The AGA feels that the delegate is the “Primary Conduit” to the club and has restated that position. The Delegate is a very important team member, who strives to build golf in Arizona and to work through issues of importance at the club level.

Some items that will be covered this fall include:

- A new “Hot Items” Bulletin which identifies those topics requiring immediate action by the Delegate. This will be used infrequently and only when there is a higher level of importance and action requested.

- The website will provide a bulletin board as a tool to provide important information and create active discussion among Delegates.

- The Board of Governors will be meeting this fall to discuss the Delegate Program and how they can provide support.

The goal is to promote a win-win situation for the AGA and its member clubs, an opportunity for the members to be heard and the ability for the AGA to react quickly to the ongoing needs of its members.

Amy Fruhwirth

Fruhwirth on a Roll

The AGA is most fortunate to have veteran LPGA player Amy Fruhwirth join the staff. Amy is a former U.S. Women’s Amateur and Public Links Champions, an all-American at ASU and part of the team that won the NCAA Championship in 1990. Amy works with us as the AGA tournament administrator and will be working on a variety of projects.

On August 28, she gave birth to her first child, Brooke Ann and on September 24 she was inducted into the Arizona State Athletics Hall of Fame. Quite a month for Amy.

Jeff Berkshire

Jeff Berkshire Captures 81st Arizona Amateur

Jeff Berkshire sank a six-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole to post a 1-up victory over Brian Prouty en route to winning the 81st Arizona Amateur Presented by NOVA Home Loans at Southern Dunes Golf Club on July 25-30.

“Words can’t explain how I feel,” said the incoming senior at Drake University. “This is the state’s most prestigious amateur tournament and to win it is just great. Last year, he [Brian] beat me in the second round, and I had to get back at him. We both played great. I made a lot of putts and I have to credit that for the win.”

The two battled all day with five lead changes and neither player able to sustain a 1-up lead for more than two holes.

“I’d rather go down being beaten than

Tom Hays— Star in the Making

It never fails that in a major championship, whether it be an amateur or a professional event, a player emerges out of seemingly nowhere to capture the spotlight with their gutty and inspiring performance. We saw it in 2003 when Ben Curtis won the British Open and Shaun Micheel won the PGA Championship. This year, we saw it when Michael Campbell won the U.S. Open and Jason Gore was the story of the week.

The Arizona Amateur also has its share of unlikely heroes, and this year Tom Hays, a 34-year-old club fitter from Chandler, truly fit the bill. Emerging from an eight-man playoff in dramatic fashion by driving the 387-yard 10th hole at Southern Dunes, he earned the final spot in the match play portion of the Championship, and proceeded to knock out Ben Kern, the defending champion, 1-up.

(Hays' success was not unprecedented by any means. In the 2004 tournament, restaurateur Brian Mehr defeated the No. 1 seeded Charlie Beljan, a former U.S. Junior Champion, in the first round and went on to reach the quarterfinals.)

Just happy to be in the field, Hays had nothing to lose and continued his march, defeating Nicholas Carlson 3&2 in the round of 32 players, Ryan Brooks 1-up in the Sweet 16 and Ben Choe on the 21st hole in the quarterfinals. Berkshire, the eventual champion, halted Hays' run with a 1-up victory in the semifinals.

"It was such a great week," Hays said reflecting back. "I had so much fun and really can't put it into words."

COURSE DIRECTORY

We are pleased to announce that the Course Directory section of the AGA website has undergone a facelift and now provides detailed course information about each facility. The information includes course directions, course and slope ratings, amenities, photos, a description and rates, loyalty programs and complete scorecard information. We invite you to check it out. The changes are a work in progress, so if you see that the information on any golf course is incomplete, please contact Ginger Monroy at gmonroy@azgolf.org.
